Mr. H. L. Kinsler the popular realty and investment agent is ill at his residence, 1914 E. 14th street with appendicitis. His man friends wish for him an early recovery.

When you begin to take music lessons, start right; get a good foundation. Call Mr. Jackson over Allen Chapel Phone, 4676 Main, and let him talk with you about it.

Royal Grand Patron Geo. W. K. Love writes that he and the Royal Grand Matron organized a Chapter of fifteen members at Alliance, Nebr. They were enroute to the West.

Mr. Will Harris, 2624 Euclid avenue, and Mr. Quincy Harris of Rosedale, Kan., visited their sister, Mrs. Julia Cole of Denver, Colo., whom they had not seen for 32 years. They report a delightful trip.

Mrs. W. S. Kyle of Independence, Mo., and daughter, Mrs. Flora Rollins of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. Beatrice Brown of Kansas City, Mo., were at a luncheon at Mrs. Katie Brooks, 2112 West Prospect Avenue, Monday, June 10, 1918.

Mr. and Mrs. Fortune J. Weaver, Jr., of 2423 Montclair announce the birth of a fine girl Friday, June 7th, to whom they have given the name Juanita Elaine. Mother and daughter are doing nicely. Mrs. Weaver was formerly Des Demonia West.

James Henry, 53 years of age, of 1613 Lydia avenue, died Thursday morning after a long illness. The funeral arrangements had not been made as we go to press. He leaves a wife and one brother, Morton Henry, and an aunt, Mrs. Sadie Gree. He was a member of Mr. Kinley Lodge No. 21, K. of P.

Mrs. Sarah W. Rose of Louisiana, Mo., Grand High Priestess of the International Order of Twelve, Jurisdiction of Missouri, made her annual visit to the Tabernacles of this city this week and was the distinguished guest of Mrs. C. B. Burton, 1414 Vine street. While here she was the recipient of much social attention. Mrs. Rose reports the Tabernacles in good condition.

Principal Lee rightly censured a Soda Pop vender who intruded his clanking and disturbing wares upon the audience and performers to their comfiture.

Principal Lee left Tuesday for Tuskegee where he begins a series of four weeks lectures to various colleges and universities in the Southland. As a prodigious, tireless worker Principal Lee has no equal.

The $10.00 given by Dr. E. B. Ramsey for the best all-around record was given to Coburn Walden, who had gone to Bluefields, W. Va., to join his parents who are now located there.

When the name of J. Edw. Fladger was called in the distribution of diplomas and Principal Lee pointed to the chair draped with the American flag and announced that Fladger is now a Lieutenant in the United States Army serving his country somewhere in France, the applause from the 1,200 people present made the massive auditorium tremble.

Among the things that elicited much favorable comment was the brief, forceful and highly interesting address of Prof. Joseph L. Bowler, a graduate of the Class of '08. May the splendid example set by Mr. Bowler be followed by all future Commencement orators. He spoke less than ten minutes, and said more interesting and pleasing things than the average Commencement orator says in an hour.

DOES ADVERTISING PAY?

If you want to answer that question to your own satisfaction, visit the PEOPLE'S DRUG STORE at 15th street and the Paseo and witness the wonderful crowds that are making purchases there constantly inspired by the advertisements that from time to time appear in this paper concerning this very progressive institution.

The PEOPLE'S DRUG STORE has but one policy—uniformly courteous treatment to all and prompt attention to all business coming into their store. They carefully compound prescriptions, deliver them by speedy messengers and supply you every want in the drug line. They keep constantly on hand the latest periodicals such as The Cosmopolitan, Literary Digest, the Ladies' Home Journal, the American Magazine, Hearst's, Leslie's, Billboard, and many others as well as the up-to-date Negro Journals and magazines. Every standard brand of cigars and tobaccos are carried and their ice cream sodas, sundaes and phosphates are delicious. Their table service is unsurpassed. And they have been compelled to employ a number of extra attendants on Saturdays and Sundays, for the past few weeks.

BRIEF NOTES ON COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

By Chas. A. Starks.

As predicted the crowd exceeded the one at the "Pageant."

According to program all went well and in order.

The Oratorical numbers, though delivered ably, seemed long drawn out and too numerous.

Our audiences are becoming more sober and balanced in their general behavior—Congratulations!

Miss Helen Wheeler carried off the prizes this year for scholarship and general excellence in studies.

The Reverend gentlemen who delivered the invocation covered every thing from Dan to Bersheba.

"Bye and Bye," a Musical number by N. C. Smith, rendered by the chorus and led by some spectacularly sweet singer was the feature of the evening.

Whereas people commented upon the dearth of musical numbers. Those rendered, however, were happy and successful with the possible exception of the Saxophone Quartette.

To those who form a comparative estimate of this event in connection with the one last year should remember that "First Things" have a certain "Charm" over their repetitions.

The Oratorical wares offered were essentially studied along the lines of the accoutrements of War. This, of course, forbids the warm indulgence in race propaganda so signally practiced in other days.

Principal Lee rightly censured a Soda Pop vender who intruded his clanking and disturbing wares upon the audience and performers to their comfiture.

Kansas City, Kansas

By Mrs. W. T. Biggers.

Mrs. Della Roberson, R. R. No. 3, Quindaro, is indisposed this week.

Corporal Simmons has left Funston for somewhere in France.

Mrs. Cora Hickman, 2910 N. 5th St., is steadily improving in health.

Miss Tressa Penman of Topeka is guest of Mrs. M. E. Turk, 324 Parallel.

Miss Mabel Vaughn of Quindaro is home from Oklahoma, where she has been teaching school.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Lexington, Mo., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Roberson, 836 Virginia, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall have purchased a nice home here in the 300 block on Stewart and will move here soon.

By Mrs. W. T. Biggers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lander are getting along fine in their store opposite Stanley Hall in Quindaro.

Mrs. H. Guston of Omaha spent several days in the city visiting her niece Mrs. Wilbur Cummings on Virginia street.

Mrs. Ada Hudson, 440 Boswell, wishes her many friends to know that she is well and getting along nicely at her new home on the Kansas Side.

Mrs. Leona Simmons of Alliance, Neb., who has been visiting Mrs. Mattie Johnson, 2106 N. 3rd, and her husband at Camp Funston, came home June 7th.

Mr. Henry Childers, 409 Cleveland, died Friday, June 7th, and funeral services were preached from the Metropolitan Temple Monday at 3:30 p. m. Rev. Holmes officiated.

The following named ladies will attend Grand Court of Heroines of Jericho in Atchison this week: Mesdames Bertha Carroll, Marie Wilson, Hattie Gamble, Maggie Merrett, Hattie Ewing and Miss Fannie Murray.

The many friends of Mrs. Fannie Johnson, R. R. No. 3, Quindaro, will be surprised to know that she was married to Rev. J. A. Rucker, of St. Louis about four nights ago. They will make their home in Quindaro.

Mrs. Frank Horne enroute home from Hot Springs, Ark., spent a few days in the city visiting his brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cummings. Mr. Horne is delighted with the South and is feeling fine.

Little John Baptist, 2905 N. 5th, closed a very successful revival meeting this week. The boy preacher, Rev. Johnnie L. Gray, styled as "The World's Little Evangelist" conducted the meeting. A chorus of fifty voices assisted.

A CLASSICAL PLAY.

"The Fate of a Traitor," the four-act war drama presented by the Athenaeum Art Club in Lincoln High School Assembly Hall Monday night, the 10th, was an excellent production. Each character is worthy of special mention. Mrs. Clara Adams as leading lady was indeed good, while Mrs. Essie Lewis in her quiet and unassuming manner rendered her part well. Miss Gertrude Smith as Aunt Chloe was strikingly fit for her part. Mrs. Ella Lawson made a good "mother." The solos by Mesdames Lulu Madison, Lena Johnson and Mr. Edw. Boatner were exceptionally good. The male characters Messrs. Arthur Johnson, Henry Cox, Sylvester Smith, Archie Madison, H. H. Britton and Wm. Marshall were all good in their respective parts. The characters were trained by Mrs. W. T. Osborne, wife of the pastor of the Ebenezer A. M. E. Church, and the production of the play reflects great credit upon her ability in that line of work, as well as the talent of the individuals participating. Should Mrs. Osborne organize a School of Dramatic Art in Kansas City where there is broad field for such talent, her fame would become renowned.

DR. W. W. CALDWELL

It has often been said that Kansas City is the Mecca of our men in the medical profession, and the large number of practitioners located here demonstrates that it is one of the most advanced fields for our physicians in the country. But Kansas City is exceedingly fortunate to have among the large number of young men in the medical profession to settle in this community such an excellent gentleman and splendid physician as Dr. W. W. Caldwell, whose likeness appears above.

Dr. Caldwell for ten years was the leading physician in Atchison, Kansas, and only left his large practice there at the earnest solicitation of the late brilliant Dr. E. J. McCampbell to come here for the purpose of forming a partnership in the practice of medicine. This community still feels
